CORAM: V.M. KANADE, J.

DATE: 13th February, 2006

P.C.:

1. This is a second application filed by the applicant seeking temporary bail for the purpose of fixing marriage of his second daughter. The first application was filed in December, 2005 for fixing the marriage of his first daughter and time was granted for the purpose of attending the marriage of his first daughter. Thereafter, the applicant surrendered and immediately in January, 2006 the second application has been filed.

2. It is submitted by the learned Counsel appearing on behalf of the applicant that the applicant alone can fix the marriage of his second daughter and, therefore, he should be released temporarily on bail for that purpose.

3. It is not possible to accept the submission made by the learned Counsel appearing on behalf of the applicant. The application for temporary bail is rejected. After the marriage of the second daughter of the applicant is fixed, liberty is granted to the applicant to apply for temporary bail for attending the said marriage.
